“Nightmare”

St Luke's Players are currently in rehearsal for the final production of their 60th Season - “Nightmare”, a mystery by Norman Robbins. Audiences will remember the Players performances of “A Tomb With a View” and “Tiptoe Through the Tombstones” - also written by this playwright.

Following on the success of “The Heiress”, “Sleeping Beauty - the Panto” and “Random Acts” earlier in the season, this suspense play promises to keep audiences on the edge of their seats right up until the final curtain.

New to St Luke's Players, Director Geoffrey J. Davidson has assembled a cast of familiar faces and newcomers to the group to present this thrilling nightmare of deceit, suspicion, blackmail and incrimination - all woven into an ingenious web of crime.

Performances will take place at St Luke's Hall, 3821 Cedar Hill X Road, starting on May 20 and running from Wednesday to Saturday until May 30.

Tickets can now be purchased from Ivy's Bookshop in Oak Bay Village, Petals Plus Florist at 3749 Shelbourne Street or at the door (Adults $12, Seniors/Students $10). The opening night performance on May 20 is 2 for 1 and there is a matinee at 2.00 pm on May 23.
