It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Neville Owen.

Neville was a much loved and honoured member of St Luke's Players. He joined the Players in the spring of 2003 and was on the board for sixteen years including serving as President for five of the lean years when the Players operated on a shoestring. Neville was an electrical engineer specializing in communications and became our technical guru. He also headed up the set construction team for many years, directed, acted, and was generally indispensable.

In his spare time, Neville was involved with the Monterey Players and, among other parts, made a wonderful Ebenezer Scrooge.

The Celebration of Life was held at St. Luke's Parish Hall, February 29th, 2020.

Rest in peace, dear friend. You will be missed.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Springtime in Victoria! Cherry blossoms and warmer sunny days! What could make spring in Victoria better? Live theatre with St. Luke's Players! After the amazing panto at Christmas, work began on our spring production of I Never Sang for My Father. This touching drama, directed by Janine Longy and Geli Bartlett, explores relationships and alienation, family, aging and loss. I hope everyone comes out to support Janine and Geli and their talented cast.

After mentioning the panto, I must congratulate Heather Lee and Steve Eastman for the great job they did casting and directing "Treasure Island" The cast were hilarious!

The sets were one of the best panto sets ever! So much fun. Thank you all.

The future lighting and sound booth is well on its way to reality thanks to the exhaustive work of Janine Longy and Simon Skey. Still some steps left but it is closer.

Auditions for The Unexpected Guest were held February 21, 22, 23, the cast has been chosen, and rehearsals will begin with the Meet & Greet and Reading of the play on March 25. If you have any time to volunteer for the concession or front of house, please contact Susan Nicholl.

Our 2020/2021 season has been announced and we are looking for directors. Please check our website for all details.

Hope to see all of you soon!

~ Michael King

MEMBERS ACTING UP AROUND TOWN

Susan Ko filmed a short film, In The End at St. Luke's in January. This screenplay is about a woman coming to terms with her difficult relationship with her mother as she deteriorates with dementia. It is currently in post production and will hopefully be screened in the late spring.

Things My Mother Taught Me producers, Holly McGimpsey and Terry Oliver, are now producing Silent Sky for Langham Court Theatre. Lindsay Anderson, also from TMMTM, is playing Annie Cannon and James Johnson is also cast in the production which tells the story of how turn of the century women at the Harvard Observatory changed astronomy. Silent Sky runs April 15 to May 2nd.

In addition to continuing to serving as Langham's Planning Production Chair for 2020-22, Jon Scheer is Stage Manager for Silent Sky.

Merry Hallsor co directed a Reader's Theatre Production on Feb. 8th at Langham Theatre. This was a co-production with Theatre Carpe Diem.

Carl Powell will be in Bema Production's mounting of Leipzig running May 7-21. This multiple award winning play explores the journey of a three-member Irish Catholic Boston family when the mother descends into Alzheimer's and begins praying in Hebrew, unwittingly revealing her long-held secret that she is Jewish, a child refugee of the Holocaust. Past and present collide in a psychological homecoming that raises deep and ultimately moving questions about identity. The play is a beautiful exploration of religious identity, loyalty, parental bonds and attendant feelings of safety or threat. It is a plea for inclusion at a time of fear and religious polarization.

Elaine Montgomery is directing a musical: Pajama Game in Palm Springs, which will run Mar 26-29.

Geoffrey J. Davidson is directing Little Bird for Starry Starry Skies Productions. It's an original rock musical set in 1969 which will play at Intrepid Theatre March 20/21 and 27/28.

Cast and crew of I Never Sang for My Father practicing turning the 'revolves'

I Never Sang for My Father

Evenings 7:30 • March 11–14 & 18–21

Matinees 2:00 • March 14, 15, 21, 22

PUTTING THE PUZZLE TOGETHER: I NEVER SANG FOR MY FATHER

Rehearsals are well underway and we're all delighted as the pieces of the puzzle evolve and revolve to complete the picture.

The play comprises 20 scenes set from New York City's Penn Station to Westchester County and ultimately to California. The work of fitting it on our modest stage presents a myriad of aesthetic and practical challenges. As usual Team St. Luke's Players is up for it and it's a treat to watch the elements of— set design, lighting, sound, props, set décor falls seamlessly into place. Well, actually, they are nudging each other gently into place.

During rehearsals, we continue to explore the complex relationships of the central characters. Many of us are finding we can relate to our own family stories as we follow the Garrisons on their personal journeys. The supporting cast not only advance the plot and throw the major characters into sharper relief but are proving to be invaluable in setting the scenes.

As we approach opening night, we are proud of our innovative cast and crew and look forward to sharing with you the finished picture.

~ Geli Bartlett and Janine Longy, Co-directors

PLAY READING COMMITTEE NEEDS A NEW CHAIR AND SOME READERS

We just got nice new chairs for the auditorium, so no, we don't mean a 'chair'...

Each year a group of enthusiastic members of St. Luke's Players gather to research, read, meet, discuss and—using established criteria—eventually come up with 3 choices for each of the 3 plays and a Panto that the Players produce annually.

Mike Chadwick has been Chairperson of this committee for several years and now it's time for the group to rally, select a new chair and get working on the plays for the 2021/22 Season. If you like to read and would like to be part of the process, you are most welcome to contact us please. stlukesplayers@yahoo.ca
